

Call-on Congress FAQ

Who should attend?

Anyone who has been touched by colorectal cancer is welcome to attend Call-on Congress. – no experience necessary! Want to make it a family adventure? We offer a Junior Advocate program for children ages 6-17.

Registration for adults is $125 before December 1 and $150 after December 1. Junior Advocate registration is $50.

How much does Call-on Congress cost?

Costs associated with Call-on Congress include:

- Registration - $125 before December 1; $150 after December 1
- Lodging - $175/night
- Travel expenses – plane/train ticket or gas and mileage
- Meals – Meals will be provided except for dinner on 3/19 and 3/20 lunch

Where is Call-on Congress this year?

Call-on Congress 2018 will consist of two days of advocacy training at the Key Bridge Marriott Hotel and Conference Center (1401 Lee Highway, Arlington VA 22209) and one day of meetings with members of Congress on Capitol Hill.

The Key Bridge Marriott Hotel is located in Rosslyn, a beautiful D.C. neighborhood located just across the Potomac River from Georgetown. We will provide transportation to your meetings with Congress on 3/20, and you will need to take a cab or an Uber back to the hotel after your meetings. Many attendees share cabs to cut costs.

Public transportation

The Key Bridge Marriott Hotel has direct metro access via the Rosslyn Station metro stop. The stop is approximately a half mile from the hotel, or about an 8 minute walk.

Click here to book your room.

Call-on Congress begins at 9am on Sunday, 3/18 and concludes at 10pm on Tuesday, 3/20. Most attendees will reserve hotel rooms for 3/17-3/21.

Hotel rooms are limited; please reserve your room no later than February 16.

May I find a roommate?

You will be given the opportunity to indicate your preference during the registration process. If you would like to share a hotel room with another attendee, your contact information will be shared with others who are looking to split the cost of a room.

Which airport should I use?

We recommend flying into the Ronald Reagan National Airport (DCA) which is about a 15-minute cab or Uber ride to the hotel.

The Key Bridge Marriott Hotel has direct metro access via the Rosslyn Station metro stop. The stop is approximately a half mile from the hotel, or about an 8 minute walk.

Is parking available on-site?

Parking is available directly under the hotel for $25 a night.

How do I register?

Call-on Congress attendees must register and pay the registration fee online. You can register here.

If you are a first-time attendee and have applied for a scholarship, please wait to register until after recipients are announced in early December. You can apply for a scholarship here.