

FUNDRAISE YOUR WAY TO THE HILL!

Traveling to Washington, D.C. for Call-on Congress can be expensive. While Fight CRC isn't able to offer everyone financial assistance, here are some ideas for how you can fundraise your way to D.C.

Ways you can ask your community to support you:

In-Kind Donations

Ask friends and family that have been supportive of your advocacy efforts to cover your registration fee, flight, and/or hotel accommodations. They can even donate their hotel points or airline miles.

Personal Fundraising Page

Set up a personal fundraising page, and ask your community (local and online!) to support you through it – Fundraising Your Way To The Hill Donations*.

Estimated Cost

Registration fee = Early Bird (Before December 31, 2018) $125

Starting January 1, 2019 $150

Average flight expense = $500 (if purchased at least a month in advance)

Hotel for four nights = $900 (Current negotiated room rate: $185+13.25 tax)

Please account for additional miscellaneous expenses, such as transportation to and from the airport, from Capitol Hill on Hill Day, and any meals not provided during the conference.

Advocates have had major successes by doing this in the past and even exceeded their fundraising goal and donated the additional funds to Fight CRC's Call-on Congress scholarship fund.

Make new friends – share a hotel room!

When registering for Call-on Congress, select that you're interested in sharing a hotel room. We'll put you in touch with other attendees and you can select your roommate. This will cut your hotel expense in half, saving about $450!

Click here for additional information and step by step instructions on how to set up your personal fundraising page.

Fundraising Deadline: February 22, 2018